

Daniel G. Grey
President
American International Contractors, Inc.
Arlington, Virginia

Dan Grey is President of American International Contractors, Inc. (AICI). Previously, he was a Vice President for the Louis Berger Group and an Engineer Officer in the U.S. Army.

Born in Washington, Missouri, Dan is a retired U.S. Army Engineer officer who went through basic training at Fort Leonard Wood and over 30 years later served as the Chief of Staff of the Maneuver Support Center and Fort Leonard Wood. He has extensive international experience including deployments to Haiti, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Kosovo, Qatar, Afghanistan and Iraq and has overseen construction projects in numerous countries in the Middle East, Central Asian States and Africa.

He has a Bachelor of Science Degree from the United States Military Academy at West Point, Master of Science Degrees in Civil Engineering and General Engineering from Stanford University and a Master of Arts Degree in Strategic Studies from the U.S. Army War College. He is a registered Professional Engineer in Virginia.