

Jill Bomar
Vice President/Sr. Commercial Loan Officer
Bank of Missouri
Republic, Missouri

Jill has lived in the Fort Leonard Wood Region for the past 28 years and she began her employment with the local Bank of Missouri in 2001. During her time in the St. Robert area, she developed solid relationships with local community leaders, as well as many business owners which helped her gain valuable knowledge about the region and Fort Leonard Wood operations.

Jill completed the Graduate School of Banking at LSU in 2012. Her banking career has consisted primarily of commercial lending and management of the Bank of Missouri-St. Robert location.

In January 2021, Jill left her position as Community Bank President for the Bank of Missouri and relocated to Republic, Missouri to be closer to family and friends. She has retained a position with The Bank of Missouri as Vice President/Sr. Commercial Loan Officer in Republic.

In Jill's spare time she enjoys visiting Table Rock Lake and spending time with her daughters Bailey and Sadie.
